

Long House Independent Living 55+

People Matter. Life is Precious. Make Someone's Life Better.

The Long House is located within The Village@Erlanger campus and features warm and welcoming studios and one and two bedroom apartment homes. With three floor plans to choose from, you are given options to meet your individual budget and space requirements. The community features a General Store for residents to enjoy. This specialty themed store is created with an atmosphere of fun and relaxation while purchasing gifts, snacks and even a restful break to just sit and chat with your friends and family. We also offer a full service salon complete with barber services. In addition, Long House offers a restaurant style dining experience in our Long House Grand Dining Room.

Residents are always invited to attend live music events, themed holiday dinners with family members, festivals, and much more.

Every resident is an important and special part of our Long House family. We invite you to add your energy and personality to our caring community. For more information, please call (859) 486-0121.
